CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that

Elvio Mendes

Has attended a course of theoretical and practical study which covered the following areas:

Combined Adult & Paediatric Basic Life Support
Including use of Automated External Defibrillation
Foreign Body Airway Obstruction (choking)

ISSUED AND CERTIFIED BY:

Christopher Kurt-Gabel, Executive Chairman A-to-E Training & Solutions Ltd.

DATE OF COURSE: 07 November 2024

NAME OF TRAINER(S): Jayani Sirisena, John Burnage

VENUE: London Metropolitan University (N7 7DD)

CPD Hours: 3 GDC Registration (if applicable):

The aims and objectives of this course are:

- Recognition of cardiac arrest in the collapsed patient (adult, child, infant)
- Accessing emergency help and response in a clinical emergency
- Performance of cardiopulmonary resuscitation (chest compressions and ventilation) (adult, child, infant)
- Use of an automated external defibrillator
- Management of foreign body airway obstruction (choking) (adult, child, infant)

In addition to the core course content above specific sessions may have included additional other components specific to client institutions. These may include any of the following: anaphylaxis management; oxygen use and delivery; recognition of the deteriorating patient; use of naloxone medication; ligature removal

For confirmation of exact course syllabus, content and certificate validity please contact admin@atoetrainingandsolutions.co.uk.

It is the responsibility of the holder to remain professionally updated and follow local policies, guidelines and procedures.

This training followed the current RCUK guidance and is in line with Skills for Health recommendations for resuscitation training

Further updating and refreshing of theory and skills is recommended. This certificate is only valid for 1 year from the date of the training programme listed above.